Writer-in-Residence / Mentoring experience

- 2008 Centre for Creative Writing and Oral Culture at The University of Manitoba
- 1994-95 Manitoba's first rural Writer-in-Residence at the Parkland Regional Library in Dauphin. During this residency I was consulted by numerous writers in a variety of genres and I helped establish writers' groups in Dauphin and Roblin which were still in operation some five years later. I conducted introductory creative writing workshops in Dauphin, Roblin, McCreary, Hamiota and Birtle.
- 1992-93 Canada Council Writer-in-Residence for the Saskatoon Public Library (during 9 months I was consulted by over a hundred writers and conducted a workshop for teenage writers).
- 1990-94 Mentor for Manitoba Writers' Guild Mentor Program
- 1990-98 Artists-in-the Schools — Week-long residencies in a variety of schools at all levels, ranging from urban high schools to Hutterite colonies, First Nations schools to rural and northern schools.
- 1989-90 Arts Enrichment Program at Strathcona School in Winnipeg. — a specially funded project for inner city schools with a large aboriginal student population.
